at the Toni Areal, ZHdK, Zürich

Save the Date: November 11/12.2016 at the Toni Areal, ZHdK, Zürich

Join us for a final symposium by Art.School.Differences

- Find out about the main findings of the research
- Listen to keynotes by Nana Adusei-Poku (Rotterdam), Cornelia Bartsch (Hamburg), Rubén Gaztambide-Fernández (Toronto), Bahareh Sharifi with Rena Onat (Berlin) and Melissa Steyn (Johannesburg)
- Support us for the book launch of the Art.School.Differences Reader
- Attend a panel with the deans of the participating schools (HEAD – Genève, HEM – Genève, ZHdK)
- Enjoy a performance by Ntando Cele (Bern)

PLAY and WIN in an anti-discriminatory parcours to engage with

- The daily micro-practices of discrimination of international students at art schools.
- The notion of good design and its role in design education: "Are you 'good' enough?"
- Reflections on decolonizing the curricula at art schools: Everyone has to learn everything.
- Making Differences through solfège.
- Double-quoted world: how designers with working class background deconstruct universal categories of aesthetics.
- Mentoring and practices of collective supervision.
- Challenging power structures in the arts – «the master's tools will never dismantle the master's house» (Audre Lorde).
- Vage Vorstellung vom eigenen Ausdruck in Kunst und Unterricht.
- Art related Feminist practices: How to deviate from normativities? Artists at work, from talk to actions.
- Perceptions of the student's curriculum at a design school: Resistance, assimilation, dissimulation, confrontation and autonomy.
