To Whom It May Concern:

I would like to recommend Mr. Klaus Schonherr, German Filmmaker, for such immediate aid as you may be able to offer him. Mr. Schonherr is, without a doubt, one of the vital forces of the creative film scene in Europe. He is a man of multifold interests and tremendous enthusiasum, which with his integrity, has permitted him not only to comprehend the great potentials of the creative film, but also to recognize the need in his fellow filmmakers, both here, in Europe, and in The United States.

Sincerely yours,

Gregory J. Markopoulos
Filmmaker
